My dear Captain Fochlmann:

I have been requested by the State-Army-Navy Air Force Coordinating Subcommittee on Special Studies and Evaluations to express to you the profound appreciation of your valuable contributions in this field of interdepartmental cooperation. The services which you have rendered as a member of the Subcommittee since its establishment and the many constructive ideas which you have advanced in the course of your tenure have been of the greatest value in the advancement of the purposes of our joint mission.

It is with deep regret that I see you relinquishing your relationship for the time being to these purposes. Please accept my good wishes and those of the other members of the Subcommittee in your new assignment.

Sincerely yours,

Ralph Block
Chairman, Subcommittee on Special Studies and Evaluations of State-Army-Navy-Air Force
Coordinating Committee

2. The Chairman informed the Subcommittee members that a SANACC meeting was scheduled for tomorrow (Wednesday) to set up the proposed simulation organization for NSIA. The question then posed for the Subcommittee was "Where do we go from here?" It was Mr. Block's idea that we should begin the examination of the type of organization that would be required to carry on psychological warfare under Theatre Commanders. Colonel McNamee was never very strong for this idea, and Colonel Rich was vehemently against it. Accordingly, after much discussion, it was decided that the next work assignment for the Subcommittee would be to examine into the functions of the various Departments and Agencies of the Federal Government to ascertain what functions would contribute to the organization of NSIA, and to what extent these organizations would be used. The Navy member is to work up a paper on this subject and present it to the Subcommittee next Friday.

3. During the meeting, Mr. Block received word that the Army had already approved the paper which had been sent to SANACC.

4. Members of the Subcommittee signed a testimonial letter to Captain Poschmann thanking him for his display of energy and his numerous weighty contributions to the activities of the Subcommittee. With this action, each of us bid the Captain bon voyage, and the meeting adjourned.
